Student Activities

Monday, October 26:
9:00am-12noon: Plenary Session: Design for the Future: Connect, Cultivate, Care
Dr. Larry Brown, retired, University of Missouri; Clint Runge!, Archrival, Inc.; Mamie Parker, Ma Parker and Associates; Coach Gary Pinkel, retired coach, University of Missouri; moderated by Sara Parker Pauley, Director, Missouri Department of Conservation

1:00pm-5:00pm: Minorities in Natural Resources Student Workshop: Students will participate in round table discussions to share information on selected topics relevant to seeking employment in the natural resource field. A keynote speaker will motivate the students to continue their quest to reach their goals. There will also be a career fair for students to speak with professionals regarding employment opportunities.

2:00pm – 5:00pm: Law Enforcement Career Panel – Interested in a career in conservation law enforcement? Join in this session to ask the chiefs your questions.

5:00pm-6:00pm: Women in Conservation Social

5:30pm-6:00pm: Sponsor Trivia Night

Tuesday, October 27:
8:00am – 12:00pm: Technical Presentations and Symposia

1:00pm-2:00pm: Minorities in Natural Resources Student After Action Meeting- all welcome to attend

1:00pm-5:00pm: Technical Presentations and Symposia

6:00pm-7:00pm: SEAFWA Awards Presentation

Wednesday, October 28:
8:00am – 5:00pm: Technical Sessions and Symposia continued

12:00-1:00pm: A Professional Journey Panel for Students: Join us for an interactive panel with state agency Directors and students as the Directors share their professional journeys, and students can ask them questions about their path to the top of their field.

2:00pm-5:00pm: Professional Development Workshop: Creating a Welcoming Workforce – Hosted by MINRC- all welcome to attend.